

Bookshop Talk

With journalist, band manager and author Roy Wilkinson, in conversation with Ru Callender

Roy will be talking about his acclaimed “non-non-fiction” books series, Dark Lustre – a wild mix of action and psychology that moves from North Devon to Bavaria and beyond.

The Dark Lustre books take in the Black Leather, Bubble Car, a death by the cliffs, sinister Third Reich residues and an amazing all-female rock trio. Benjamin Myers, author of novels including The Gallows Pole: “Roy Wilkinson’s pursuit of endless capers is intoxicating, while his archaeological-like ability to find stories in every hidden crevice is a real rarity.” Roy is also author of 2011’s Sea Power-themed music/family/forestry book Do It for Your Mum, which The Guardian called “the year’s finest memoir”.

Roy will be in conversation with Ru Callender, co-founder of The Green Life Funeral company and author of the much-praised “mortality memoir”

What Remains? Life, Death and the Human Art of Undertaking

At: The East Gate Bookshop on: Wednesday 18th October

Tickets £2.00 each available from the East Gate Bookshop or online just scan the QR code
Doors open at 6:15 pm for a 6:30pm start.