

Kate Strasdin will be at the East Gate Bookshop talking about her latest book, The Dress Diary of Mrs Anne Sykes: Secrets from a Victorian Woman's Wardrobe

Doors open at 7:00 pm for a 7:30 start on Tuesday 7th March

Kate Strasdin is a Senior Lecturer in Cultural Studies at Falmouth University and has worked with historic dress collections for almost thirty years. In The Dress Diary of Mrs Sykes, Kate reveals the hidden fabric of a Victorian woman's life - from family and friends to industry and Empire - told through her unique textile scrapbook. Kate Strasdin's forensic detective work has finally let Mrs Sykes - and her book - speak again.

We are delighted that Kate will be talking about her fantastic new book on the evening of Tuesday March 7th. and we look forward to seeing you there. Doors open at 7:00 pm for a 7:30 start.

Tickets are £3.00 each and available from the East Gate Bookshop, or from our website eastgatebookshop.co.uk/events