Join us for the launch of Beth Underdown's new book

Beth Underdown lectures in Creative Writing at the University of Manchester; her debut novel The Witchfinder's Sister was a Richard & Judy bestseller

Her latest novel is a brooding Cornish tale. Ivy, a grieving mother mourning the loss of her son in the Great War. She also mourns another boy – one whose death decades ago still haunts her...

Beth's new book has already received some fantastic accolades from her peers. We are delighted that Beth is launching her new book with us. So, join us on the 3rd of February for what promises to be an enjoyable and entertaining evening.

'The perfect gothic novel' Stuart Turton 'Deliciously intriguing from the very first sentence, with shades of du Maurier and Dunmore. I was hooked by this exquisitely written tale of secrets and lies'

The evening starts at 7:00pm for 7:30pm on Thursday 3rd February at the East Gate Bookshop. Numbers will be restricted, so if you'd like to attend, please let us know in person in the bookshop, or email us at info@eastgatebookshop.co.uk to reserve your place.
