Night Swimming in the Jordan

With local author Yaara Lahav Gregory

Yaara's coming of age, Anglo-Israeli story focuses on everyday lives, exploring love, loss and the impact of conflict across generations. Linking Devon with the Middle East, the novel is about Abbie, a young Israeli girl growing up in an isolated Kibbutz community. On the eve of her wedding, she leaves for England and the contrasting world of Dartmoor. Decades later, in Devon, her daughter Yasmin begins to discover the devastating effects of Abbie's childhood.

Yaara will be joined in conversation by writer and broadcaster Sophie Pierce, so please book your place and join us for what promises to be a wonderful evening.
