

Meet Philip Reeve at: Totnes Cinema on: Sat. 11th September 3:00pm – 4:00pm

Philip will be talking about and introducing us to the characters and themes in his latest book.

Philip is the award-winning author of a number of bestselling children's books, and his incredibly imagined dystopian novel Mortal Engines was recently made into a blockbuster movie directed by Peter Jackson (Lord of the Rings)

Utterly Dark: and the Face Of The Deep takes place on the remote island of Wildsea where for centuries, the Dark family have kept a look-out for the mysterious islands which appear from time to time.

Their job is to guard Wildsea against the terrible monster which is said to live on them.

This will be a fabulous Saturday afternoon treat for children of all ages – and grown-ups too (the book is primarily aimed at 7 - 12 year olds). It will be our first event outside the bookshop. We are delighted the wonderful Totnes Cinema is able to accommodate us, with delicious home-made cakes and cookies as well as coffee and loose-leaf tea.

The event is free of charge and open to everyone, but as capacity of all venues is under scrutiny, to ensure entry we recommend you reserve a ticket with us – just ask at the counter.
