

Book Talk at The East Gate Bookshop

Join local author, Peter Johnson for the launch of his second novel, Plot One

Life for Steven has always been about him and his job. Retirement and the impending move to his new family home will be challenging for workaholic John Stevens. His wife Sally, a highly respected GP, intends to work for at least another five years. Can he adjust to being the partner at home? And has he spent too much time in his teaching career with other people's children and neglected his own?

Plot One, is the second novel from local author Peter Johnson. After studying at Oxford University and serving in the Parachute Brigade, Peter had a successful career in teaching, with his final post being Head of Millfield School in Somerset. He started writing in retirement and published his first novel It's Cold at the End of the Bed in 2022. Peter lives in Stoke Gabriel, situated along the River Dart in South Devon.
